

Hockey Champions Trophy - London

Queen Elizabeth Park 10-26 June 2016

The prestigious Champions Trophy pits the best of the best against each other in the ultimate battle to become champions. It's back to Great Britain for England, Scotland and Wales as GB prepare in their last tournament before the Rio Olympic Games.

This world-class event is being held 10-26 June, at Lee Valley Hockey and Tennis Centre and will feature both the GB men and women's teams.

The men's event pits GB against Germany, Australia, Belgium, India and Korea whilst the women's event will put the hosts up against the Netherlands, the USA, plus New Zealand, Australia and Argentina.

All days for both the men's and women's competitions are now on sale - buy tickets here.

The Men's and Women's Unibet EuroHockey Championships Finals, held at Lee Valley in 2015 both sold out in advance of the event and we are expecting high demand for these Final tickets also. There's much more than hockey, with a Fan Park, Fun Zone for children, autograph signing sessions, opportunity to purchase merchandise, food, drink, plus much more.

Secure your seats at this world-class Olympic legacy venue and get behind your nation as the best in the world collide!

Session guide and prices

Tickets are available at different prices for the sides or ends of the stadium. All days apart from Tuesday 21 June and Thursday 23 June (Women's event) offer 3 matches as part of the ticket, making them excellent value for money. Prices at the women's competition range from £5 for juniors up to £62.50 on finals day for adults. Sessions on the Tuesday and Thursday of the women's event are priced lower as there will be two matches as part of the ticket (the last two matches of the day, while the first is being made available for schools to help inspire the next generation of players), with other days offering three matches as part of the ticket.

Tickets for the men's competition go on sale on 15 March 2016, with prices ranging from £5.00 for juniors to 57.50 for adults on finals day.
