I am delighted to welcome all players, officials and spectators to the Yorkshire Men's Under-19 Cup today. This continues to be a popular event in our hockey calendar and we are grateful to Leeds University for once again hosting the competition. I know they will do a good job in extending their own welcome to you. We are also grateful to the volunteers who run the competition who have set up today's event

We hope that all matches are played within the spirit of the game we love and that all involved fully enjoy their day as much as they usually do.

The best of luck to you all.

New Zealand will join England, Argentina, Netherlands, Germany and China in Nottingham next summer when England hosts the Samsung Hockey Champions Trophy, Women, Nottingham 2010 - one of the world's highest profile hockey tournaments featuring six of the top hockey playing nations on the planet.

Running alongside the main event will be a men's four nations tournament, which will pitch Great Britain against the world and Olympic champions Germany, Oceania Cup runners-up New Zealand and Japan. The men's competition will be the first time the Great Britain team has come together for a competitive tournament since finishing fifth at the 2008 Beijing Olympic Games and provides a prime opportunity for England, Scotland and Wales' athletes to put themselves into head coach Jason Lee's thoughts ahead of London 2012.

Hosted by England Hockey on behalf of the International Hockey Federation with the support of UK Sport, East Midlands Development Agency, Nottingham City Council, Nottinghamshire County Council and venue hosts Highfields Sports Club, the Champions Trophy is the biggest hockey event staged in England since the 2007 EuroHockey Nations Championships were held in Manchester and nearly 30000 spectators are expected to see the world's top hockey playing nations in Nottingham from 10-18 July 2010.

Tickets went on sale at 10:00am this morning here on the tournament website at www.wct2010.com/tickets with day ticket prices starting at just £12.50 for adults and £7.50 for concessions.

Speaking as the tickets went on public sale, England Hockey Chief Executive Sally Munday said: "We're really pleased that we have been able to make tickets available to the Hockey Family and to the public some eight months before the tournament.

"With the top teams in the world taking part the Champions Trophy will certainly be a fantastic sporting occasion. Equally, we are looking forward to the Men's Four Nations Tournament; it will be exciting for spectators to see not only Germany, who are current world and Olympic champions, but also the teams from Japan and New Zealand, whose styles of play are quite different to our own."

Tickets are currently on sale via the www.wct2010.com website
