I offer a warm welcome to all players, officials and spectators involved in the Yorkshire Men's Under-19 Cup today. This competition proves to be an enduring and enjoyable event in the Yorkshire hockey calendar and once again we are grateful to Leeds University for hosting the competition. I know they will do a good job as always in extending a welcome to you. We are also grateful to the volunteers who run the competition and have set up today's event

We hope that all matches are played within the spirit of the game we love and that all involved fully enjoy the day.

Good luck to you all.
